Local Public Data for

2019 Colorado CDO Analytics Event

City of Boulder

City of Boulder has 73 datasets, everything from prairie dog colonies and open space trails to rental housing, public trees and fire response times. Feel free to browse the portal by category or department to see all their information!

Boulder County

Boulder County has 116 datasets on their GIS-specific portal with information like rural preservation, zoning, assessor's property data, parcels, stormwater drainage, trailheads, and much more. Check out their ArcGIS server to explore all the interesting data they have published!
ON CIM! - Septic Tanks in Boulder County

Douglas County

Douglas County has around 70 datasets with information like property owner and value information, permits by type, registered liens on properties, and so much more! Browse the datasets directly or filter CIM to show Douglas datasets via the filter on the bottom left.
ON CIM! - Restaurant Inspections in Tri-County Colorado (Douglas, Adams, and Arapahoe counties)

Fort Collins

Fort Collins has near 34 datasets with information like new construction building permits, police open data statistics, zoning information, and more! Browse the datasets directly on their website or filter CIM to show Ft Collins datasets via the federation filter on the bottom left.

Denver Regional Council of Governments (DRCOG)

The Denver Regional Council of Governments (DRCOG) has 363 datasets focused on topics in demographics, land use, employment, infrastructure and transportation. This data is combined from multiple municipalities and counties to understand the whole region.